

MINISTER CONGER MAKES CHARGES OF COWARDICE

Brings Serious Accusation Against the Second in Command of Marines at Peking.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Minister Conger has preferred charges of cowardice against Captain Newt T. Hall, U. S. M. C., the second in command of the marine forces at Peking during the siege. The details are closely guarded, the regulations of the war department and navy department strictly forbidding publicity at this stage. It is gathered, however, that Mr. Conger questioned Captain Hall's courage because of the latter's declaration to carry out certain military operations suggested by the minister. The charges in the ordinary course passed through the hands of General Chaffee, the commander-in-chief of the forces in China, who examined them, made an inquiry on his own account, and then, concluding the whole matter rested on the difference of judgment between the minister and the captain, sent the papers to Washington with a recommendation that no further proceedings be had, a finding vindicating the captain.

From the war department the papers went to the navy department, and after some consideration it was determined that the high morale of the marine corps required the most formal and complete acquittal of an accused officer from such a charge in order that he might not in after years suffer from its repetition. Consequently the papers were referred to General Haywood, the commander of marines, who is taking steps to have a thorough investigation by a proper court. It happened that the only report of the conduct of the marines at Peking to reach the department was from Captain Hall, the senior officer (Captain Miles) being too ill to report.

DISEASE THE WORST FOE.

Extraordinary Percentage of Deaths in Philippine Islands.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, according to the annual report of the adjutant general of the war department, the deaths in the Philippines were, including the regulars and volunteers as follows: Of fevers, 49; of cholera, 1,263; total, 1,312. From the same source it is shown that the deaths from February 4, 1899, to June 30, 1899, are as follows, including both regulars and volunteers: Killed, 476; died of wounds, 161; died of disease, 1,961; died from accident, 49; drowned, 160; suicide, 23; murder or homicide, 20; total officers, 72; enlisted men, 1,866.

During the same time 144 officers and 2,076 enlisted men were wounded. This number of killed and wounded is to be compared with the total number of men in the Philippine service as set forth in the same report. This report deals only with totals up to June 30, 1899. According to the figures given by General Corbin there were in the Philippines at that time, of the regular army, 987 officers and 28,961 enlisted men, and of the volunteers 1,289 officers and 30,200 men, making a grand total of 2,367 officers and 69,161 men.

KICKED THE BUCKET AT IWILEI MONDAY NIGHT

Sugiyama was the only interesting drunk in police court yesterday. He entered a plea of not guilty. He was arrested the night before inside the sacred stake at Iwilei.

"He was arrested," said the officer, "for being drunk and kicking the bucket. Two other Japs were kicking the bucket at the same time and I thought I had better stop them."

Sugiyama took the stand in his own behalf. He stated he was not drunk; that he heard a couple of men kicking the bucket and went to them while they were thus engaged and gave it as his gratuitous advice that they had better not kick the bucket.

Judge Wilcox said that Iwilei was a mighty poor place in which to kick the bucket, and fined the Jap $2 and costs.

SCHOOL BOY BEATEN BY A BRUTAL JANITOR

Waipo, the janitor of the Royal school, who cruelly struck little Antoine Bedal with a broomstick Monday, was fined $10 and costs by Judge Wilcox yesterday.

Antoine is the lad who was accidentally shot a few weeks ago, and he still carries the bullet in the muscles of his back. He offended the janitor, it seems, by climbing into the school house through the window. Waipo caught him Monday and struck him twice across the back with a broomstick. In court the boy exposed his back to the view of the judge. The marks of the blows were plainly seen from across the court room.

Waipo said in extenuation of his conduct: "I wanted to stop him."

"If you had taken a gun and shot the boy you would have stopped him sure," said the judge. "You had just as much right to do that as to do as you did."
